Semih is a sixth grade student. He is from Turkey. He is Turkish. He lives in İstanbul. He has a brother. His name is Melih. His parents are Ayten and Sedat. Semih is eleven years old. He is a short and thin boy. He is also a friendly boy, he likes meeting new people.

Where does Semih live?

Semih is a student in a secondary school. There is an Erasmus project in their school. A lot of students and teachers are coming to Istanbul for the project. Semih is excited because he likes meeting new people and chatting with them. By the way, the guest students are going to stay in Turkish students' houses during the project. Semih is one of the hosts.

Is Semih a guest student?

The guest teachers and students are in the schoolyard. There are guests from different countries. There are British, Italian, Spanish, Russian, German, French and Greek students. There are minibuses to take the guest teachers to their hotel there. The host families are also ready to take their guest students to home.

Where are they?

Semih's teacher calls Semih and introduces him to his new friends. There are two guest students near the teacher. Their names are Marcio and Daniel. Daniel is eleven years old and Marcio is twelve. They are also excited because this is their first time in İstanbul, Turkey. They look at Semih and smile.

How old is Daniel?

Semih takes his new friends to his father's car. Daniel and Marcio meet Semih's father. They talk for a while and then get on the car. The boys are on the back seat. They try to learn everything about each other. Marcio is an Italian boy and Daniel is from Germany.

Semih : Where do you live in Italy, Daniel?

Marcio : I live in Portofino.

Semih : Is it a big city?

Marcio : No, it is a town.

Where does Marcio live?

Semih : What about you, Daniel? Where do you live?

Daniel : I live in Bebenhausen. It is a small village in Germany. It is near Stuttgart.

Semih : Do you like your village?

Daniel : Yes, I do. It is a small place, but is really quieter than İstanbul.

Semih : İstanbul is noisier than many places on Earth, but it is also more beautiful than all of them.

They smile and they go to Semih's house.

They arrive home and meet Semih's mother and brother. They have lunch together and chat in the living room. Semih tells his family that Daniel lives in a village and Marcio lives in a small town.

Ayten : What do your parents do, Daniel?

Daniel : My parents are farmers. We have a farm. We have many farm animals and grow fruit and vegetables there.

Ayten : Wow! That's great.

What does Daniel's father do?

Sedat : What's your father's occupation, Marcio?

Marcio : He is a chef. We have a small restaurant in Portofino. He cooks there.

Sedat : What about your mother?

Marcio : She is a waitress in our restaurant. My sister and I help my mum serve at weekends, too. Portofino is more crowded on weekends, so our restaurant is busier.

Ayten : Do you love Portofino?

Marcio : Sure. It is a nice place to live.

Who is a waitress?

Semih : Are you tired, boys?

Daniel : No, I am not.

Marcio : No! Why do you ask?

Semih : I feel bored. If you want, we can hang around the city.

Daniel : That sounds fun.

Marcio : Good idea.

Semih : Let's go, then.

Sedat : Do you want me to take you where you want?

Semih : Thanks, dad. Today is Sunday and traffic jam is worse.

Who is bored?

Daniel : Walking is a better idea to see İstanbul.

Marcio : I agree with Daniel. Thanks a lot.

Sedat : You're welcome.

Semih, Marcio and Daniel leave the apartment. Semih lives in a big apartment with his family. They like their house. It is more comfortable than many houses in İstanbul. The streets are noisier in big cities, but their street is quieter than the others.

Does Semih love his house?

Semih, Marcio and Daniel walk on the pavement. There are a lot of people in the streets and they are really busy. There is a bad traffic jam, too.

Daniel : İstanbul is noisier than our village. You can't hear noise in our village, it is a quiet place.

Semih : How nice!

Marcio : Look at that restaurant. It is more crowded than our restaurant.

Semih : You must rent a restaurant here, so you can be richer.

Is İstanbul noisier than Daniel's village?

Marcio : That's right. I will tell this to my dad when I go to Portofino.

Daniel : Is this a skyscraper, Semih?

Semih : Yes, it is.

Daniel : Wow, it is really higher than the houses in our village.

Marcio : Actually, it can be higher than the small mountain in our town.

Daniel : There aren't very tall buildings in our village. There are only small houses and they are also older than these houses.

Is the skyscraper really tall?

Marcio : İstanbul is a beautiful city, but there is noise and crowd. Buildings are more modern than our houses, but our town is greener.

Daniel : Is life difficult here, Semih?

Semih : I don't think city life is more difficult than village life. Actually, it is easier if we think of transportation and shopping.

Marcio : Is city life more expensive than village life?

Semih : I think so, because we buy everything here. You can grow fruit and vegetables. You can eat them later, so your life is healthier than my life.

To Semih, is city life easier than village life?

Daniel : Where are we going, Semih?

Semih : We are going to a better place than these crowded and noisy streets.

Daniel : That sounds better.

Marcio : Why are these people waiting in line there?

Semih : It is a kiosk. You can buy food, drinks, magazines, newspapers and a lot of things there.

Marcio : Really? It is a very small place. I feel thirsty. Let's buy some water from the kiosk.

Daniel : Good idea.

What can we buy from a kiosk?

Semih, Daniel and Marcio are in front of a big park now. Daniel and Marcio look around and they feel excited.

Daniel : Wow! This is a great place.

Marcio : Is this a village, Semih?

Semih : No, it isn't. It is only a park.

Daniel : This is really amazing. There isn't traffic jam or noise here. There aren't tall buildings or crowded places.

Marcio : This is a nice place to go walking in such a big city.

Semih : I agree.

Where are they?

Daniel : Can you hear the voices?

Marcio : Sure.

Daniel : Are there a lot of people here?

Semih : I don't think so. There are some children with their parents.
There are some teenagers, too.

Marcio : What are people doing here?

Semih : They are spending time with their families and friends. They are also having fun.

Daniel : Do you come here with your family?

Semih : Yes, we do.

Does Semih go there with his parents?

Daniel : There are a lot of people in the park, but streets are noisier than here.

Semih : You are right. People are only having fun, they aren't making noise.

Daniel : Look at that boy! He is feeding the birds and a girl is walking his dog.

Marcio : That's a cute dog.

Daniel : It isn't barking. That's quite interesting. I have two dogs in my village and they usually bark.

Semih : Can you see the cats over there? They are climbing the tree.

What are cats doing?

Daniel : What is that boy doing over there?

Semih : He is skating.

Daniel : Do you like skating?

Semih : No, I don't. I think badminton is more enjoyable than skating. Two girls are playing badminton there.

Marcio : There is a boy near the lake. He is flying a kite.

Semih : Do you like flying a kite, Marcio?

Marcio : Yes, of course.

Semih : We can come here later to fly a kite.

What are girls doing?

Semih : Are you hungry? An old man is selling bagels there.

Daniel : No, I'm not.

Marcio : Shall we swing?

Daniel : Two girls are swinging and two boys are sliding at the moment. We can go that side later.

Semih : This is a relaxing place. Why don't we come here with our books tomorrow again?

Marcio : That would be great. An old woman is reading a book over there and a girl is skipping a rope near her.

Is the old woman skipping a rope?

Semih : Is your village quieter than here , Daniel?

Daniel : Yes, it is. There aren't any skyscrapers or tall buildings around. You can't see people around. They usually work on their farms and fields. There aren't any shops. We go shopping to a near town.

Semih : I think it is also greener than here.

Daniel : I agree. Is life in your town more expensive than here, Marcio?

Marcio : I don't think so. My town isn't a crowded place. It is also quiet. It is a beautiful small town.

Are there any skyscrapers in Daniel's village?

Semih : Are there many tourists in the streets in your town?

Marcio : Yes, there are. It is hotter than a lot of touristic places in Italy and there are also old houses, so it is a very exciting town.

Semih : Are there any shops around the town?

Marcio : Yes, there are. There are also a lot of restaurants and cafes in the downtown. Downtown is usually busier than the other places in the town.

What are there in the downtown in Portofino?

Semih : What time is it?

Marcio : It is a quarter past six.

Semih : Really? The dinner must be ready at our house. Shall we return home?

Daniel : OK, let's go. I feel hungry.

Marcio : I am hungry, too.

Daniel : Do you think Turkish food is more delicious than Italian food, Marcio?

Marcio : I don't know. We will see soon.
They smile and walk to Semih's house.

Who is hungry?
